

INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF HUMANITIES

Volume 3, Number 2, 2011

S/No.	Contents	Authors	pages
1.	Exploring Home Literacy among Rwandan Families.	Pierre Canisius Ruterana	1-11
2.	Reflections on Jack Mapanje's Poetry as a Weapon against Injustice.	Nesther Alu	12-22
3.	The Influence of Eyo Festival on the Socio-Economic and Cultural Development of Isale Eko.	Egiolamhen Pius	23-27
4.	A Stylistic Analysis of Adegbija's 'Plus One Minus One'	N. A. H. Ejiobih	28-35
5.	Economy and Management: A Lucan Eco-Theological Approach to the Economic Situation on Nigeria.	Ekundayo Lawrence Olabode	36-41
6.	Son-of-the-Soil/Indigene Syndrome in Nigeria: Socio-Ethical Implications for Nigeria's Economic Development.	Ernest O. Anyacho	42-48
7.	Child Soldiering as Child Abuse: A General Consensus.	Beauty O. Alloh	49-53
8.	The Re-Branding Nigeria Campaign: Media or Moral Issue?	Kingsley C. Izuogu	54-60
9.	Gender Biases in Traditional African Pottery: The Role of Female Pottery in South West Nigeria.	Falayi Temitope Olabanji	61-63
10.	"Literature for Sustainable Development: Theme as a Strategy for Developing Nations"	Stella N. Kpolugbo and Emmanuel Babatunde Adeleke	64-71
11.	Fear, Silence, Psychic Devaluation of Humanity and the Prospects of the Educated Elites: A Thematic Evaluation of Okey Ndible's Arrows of Rain .	Jacob, Olotu Paul-Beckson	72-77
12.	Poverty Alleviation and Church in Nigeria Matters Arising.	Obodoegbulam Agi Otto and Rose Da-Wariboko	78-82
13.	Neo-Colonialism in Mike Aliu's Sarowaja.	Aminu S., Adewumi S. I., Abuya E. J. and Ariyo K. S.	83-91
14.	Character as Object: A Study of Soyinka's The Breatification of Area Boy: A Logosian Kaleidoscope .	Ajimuda Olufunso Stephen	92-100
15.	The Relevance of Francophone Oral Literature & Culture to the Educational Development of Nigerian Youths.	Adefarasin V. A.	101-111
16.	Africa: From Tradition to Science.	Augustine C. Obi	112-117
17.	The Legal Regime of Patents and Designs Law and Its Effects on National Development.	K. M. Waziri	118-124
18.	A Syntactic Contrastive Analysis of Nigerian Pidgin and English.	Arhagba Deborah	125-131
19.	Fundamental Barriers and Limitations to Local Government Autonomy.	B. O. Adediji	132-142
20.	The Use of Music in the Promotion of Dialogue and Mutual-Existence in a Multi-Cultural and Pluri-Religious Society (An Attempt at Enhancing Sustainable Development in Nigeria through Music and Dialogue).	Isidore U. Nwanaju and Trintas O. Keke	143-153